

Green Room - May 2012

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
	Earth is a magnet. Compass Activity: Magnetic Marathon 	Magnetism can be transferred. Activity: Earth's Layers	Magnets are different sizes. Activity: Magnetic Painting	Magnets are strongest at their poles. Activity: Butterfly Magnet
Opposites: Unlike Poles Attract, Like Poles Repel Activity: Mother's Day Card & Magnetic Raceway	Gravity Which metals contain iron? Activity: Drawing on Metal	Where do we find rocks? What is a rock? Activity: Rock Painting	Rocks are made from different materials. Examine Rocks  Activity: Flower	Crystals: How do they form? Activity: Grow Crystals & Crystal Picture
What is a volcano? What is lava? Activity: Draw Volcano	What things move by themselves? What grows? Examine Plant Activity: Bean in Bag	Rocks need soil to form. What else needs soil? Activity: Marigold	Plant Safety Plant Seeds in Various Mediums Activity: Begin Sunflower	Plants need light to grow. Activity: Finish Sunflower DELI DAY
Examine Seeds  Activity: Seed Picture	Uses of Light by People Activity: Sun Catcher	Light: What would we do without it? Activity: Geranium & Cover for Yearbook NO HUBERT	Review: Math Sentences  Activity: Watercolor	How you have grown! Activity: Bee for Hallway Bulletin Board
 CHAPS CLOSED	Positional Words Activity: Yearbook Page	Pledge of Allegiance Activity: Patriotic Door Hanger	Review: Number, Color, Days of the Week, and Month Words Activity: Color Word Paper	Every day at least two stories, every day, outdoor play!